

Small Business By The Numbers

Take a look at the percentage of promotional products companies in each state that are small business, defined as revenue less than $5 million. Breaking down the national estimate into state components increases the potential for error.

Percent of companies nationally that are small businesses: 97%

