

Small Business By The Numbers

Take a look at the percentage of promotional products companies in each state that are small business, defined as revenue less than $5 million. Breaking down the national estimate into state components increases the potential for error.

Percent of companies nationally that are small businesses: 98%

As of 05.17.21

* Data based on reporting numbers at the time of collection. Actual numbers may vary